2013 KEURING REPORTS

Pennock Point – Reddick, FL

September 19, 2013

Host: Sandi Lieb

Jury: Arie Hamoen from the Netherlands and Lana Sneddon from Indiana.

The last riding type keuring of the 2013 tour was at Pennock Point. Our host Sandi Lieb has been a KWPN-NA member for 28 years and this was the 11th keuring she has hosted.

We started today with Ahsianita M2S (Ulysses M2S x Harnita ster pref by Ahorn pref, owned by Sakura Hill Farm, bred by Morningside Stud) in the jumping IBOP. She showed a good attitude and rideability. Her canter, reflexes and technique were correct, giving her 75 points to pass her test.

The mare Eaglea ster IBOP PROK (Contester x Lanner by Rubinstein, owned/bred by Sandi Lieb) passed her IBOP and was presented today to have her conformation evaluated for keur. This supple and powerful mare easily earned her Keur and because she already had her PROK certificate, she became Elite today. She also earned the high point ribbon of the keuring.

The hunter mare Farandola was a pretty type with nice expression. Her balanced supple canter and her jumping technique were her high lights. The combination earned her the ster predicate and keur eligible.

The hunter foal Intoxicating (Redwine x Bittersweet PROK by Inspekteur, owned/bred by Christine Miller of Oakmont Farm) was one of the nicest hunter types we seen this year. She is well developed with good proportions and has quality legs. In movement her canter was well balanced showing enough length of stride. She also earned the awarded for the top young hunter.

The top jumper foal today was Irideon Du Rouet (Champion FP x UreedomVDL by Baloubet du Rouet, owned/ bred by Jessica Clinton). This colt showed enough development and sufficient movement and was also the top young jumper.

The top dressage foal was the UB 40 son Improv. (d. Zodica elite by Rousseau, owned/bred by Sandi Lieb). This well-developed colt show good dressage type and is well portioned. In the trot he has sufficient use of the hind leg but the front leg showed good reach. His balanced canter was his best gait today earning him an orange ribbon and the title of Best Young Dressage Horse.
