2011 KEURING REPORTS

Apple Lane Farm – Lancaster, MA

Hosts: Dayna and Mike Gant.

Jury: Toine Hoefs-Netherlands, Lana Sneddon, Indiana.

The 2011 keuring tour began at Apple Lane Farm in Lancaster, MA, and was hosted by Dayna and Mike Gant. The keuring started with a light sprinkle but the rain did not put a damper this very well-organized keuring with good footing.

The first class was the Jumping IBOP/ISF Cup. They saved the best for last! The Judgement son, Chivas out of the elite sport/J mare Alexis Titty was bred, owned and presented by Dayna Gant of Apple Lane Farm. Chivas has a good Attitude towards his work, is well balanced with a powerful ground-covering canter. Chivas passed his IBOP and was the winner of the ISF Cup with a score of 76.5

The top dressage foal was the colt, Gigiloma MG by Uphill out of the elite sport/d mare Uloma by Farrington, bred and owned by Kathleen Hickerson of Majestic Gaits. Gigiloma MG is a rectangular well-developed colt with beautiful neck and a lot of expression. He has a good front leg technique but he could have a little bit more power.

In the Stb/star class for jumper mares, we were impressed with the Judgement filly Dena SCF out of the TB mare Karen J, bred by Dr. Carlos & Karin Jimenez of Sporting Chance Farm and owned by Jay Howlett of True North Farm. When Dena SCF stood for the jury we had some remarks but Dena SCF proved to the jury that her conformation was very functional and was given a 80 for free jumping, earning the star predicate.

The friendly atmosphere made the first keuring of the season a great start and set the bar for those to follow.
