The 2012 Keurings are off to an early start with the Harness horses at the Beautiful Windy Knoll Farm in Sullivan, OH, on August 3, 2012. Thank you to our host, Adelbert Webber, Debbie and Ron Egan and the numerous people it take to pull a big event like this together.

KWPN-NA Keuring

The morning started out very warm and humid with forecast that would be close to 100 degrees. The Midwest has had a record setting summer; this is the hottest summer in over 50+ years.

The foal champion was a bay filly Honey-O-Mendrini sired by Zion-JC and out of the keur mare, Mendrini (Gelviro x Gendrini keur pref x Allegro). Bred and owned by Daniel L Allgyer. Honey-O-Mendrini, a fancy filly with a correct structure that should have longer lines but when she moved her lines grew. In movement she was balanced, had very good use of her neck. She should show a more powerful hind leg but her front leg technique was good. Honey-O-Mendrini was also the Grand champion of the day.

Our reserve champion foal was the colt Harley, sired by Whiskei and out Angel (Jonker x Erina keur pref sport x Waterman pref). Bred and owned by Steven Graber. Harley is an expressive, long lined colt with a correct foundation. In movement Harley should show more power.

The day did not end at the conclusion of the Keuring. There was a lot more fun to be had. The kids played games, the adults talked horses, a sit down dinner for 100 + and the day closed with a parade of stallions.
