IRON SPRING FARM – COATESVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA

The two-day keuring at Iron Spring Farm was well organized and very well equipped with footing that is superb and supports all the horses, allowing them to show well. This keuring had a large group of jumper and dressage foals. Because the group of foals was so large there was a championship for both dressage and jumper foals.

The jumper championship was led by the expressive jumper colt Kaspian SCF (Baltic VDL x Fashionista SCF by Goodtimes; o/b Dr. Carlos and Karin Jimenez of Sporting Chance Farm) who earned a high score and took over the lead in the nation. This well-developed foal was long lined and a modern jumping type. His athletic body supported powerful and energetic supple movement. Both the trot and canter were well balanced and long strided with very good articulation of his joints.

Second in the championship ring was the long-lined Kahlua (Judgement-ISF crown x Uresco elite sport/sp by Orame; breeder Lynn St. Laurent, owner Dayna Gant of Apple Lane Farm). This feminine jumper filly had a well-muscled topline with a long shoulder and a well-shaped croup. Especially her long strided canter was well balanced and light-footed. This elegant filly made it into second place of the tour so far.

The champion of the dressage foals was another filly named Kahlua. The elegant Kahlua K.F. (Sir Donnerhall x Aloha S.E. stb by Sir Sinclair keur; o/b Lisa Dickman of Kaneques Farm) was long lined, refined and had a well-muscled topline. Her neck had good length and shape. Her light-footed movement showed remarkable articulation and suspension in trot and canter. She was very supple and athletic and showed sufficient uphill tendency.

Runner up was the well-developed colt Kavalier ISF (Contango pref x Ballerina Ceroon elite sport/dr by Oscar; o/b Iron Spring Farm). This strongly built dressage foal was well muscled and well proportioned. In trot he showed good suspension and articulation, but particularly his canter was long strided and powerful. Kavalier ISF had a carrying use of his hind-leg and he kept his balance easily through turns.

In the riding classes Grand Star W.S. (Amazing Star x Angie elite by San Remo; bred by W.H.M Tonk, owned by Gaye Bergstrom of Wyndover) was presented in the dressage IBOP and DG Bar cup. Grand Star W.S. had a nice frame under saddle with a long, well shaped and vertical neck. She had an active and clear walk, a supple trot and a well-balanced canter. Her balance and uphill tendency in trot and canter supported a steady connection to the bridle. Grand Star received her keur eligible in the studbook class and with a passing score of 78.5 in the IBOP she earned her keur predicate. She also earned 78 points in the DG Bar Cup.

Graceland

The elegant Graceland (Jazz pref x Camelot vb by Rhodium; breeder Victoria Lamas Wanner, owner Diane Seddon of Waterloo Farm) received her ster predicate. This modern type could be longer lined, but was correctly built and had a strong topline. Her walk was active, clear and with good length of stride. She showed good technique in the trot with good suspension. Her canter could be more uphill and carrying.

Gia

The 4-year-old hunter mare, Gia (Navarone x Nikki of Overlook hvb by Consul; breeder Stacy McDermott, owner Twenty Ten Breeding LLC) received her keur eligible. This well-proportioned mare had a long well shaped neck and a smooth topline. She showed a supple, flat trot with good reach. Gia showed good leg technique as a hunter, somewhat stretched in her canon but with her knee upward. Gia's jumping improved when the fences were raised and she showed a supple use of her body.

Good Judgement (Judgement-ISF x Platina by Piano II; o/b Katie Moriarty) received her ster predicate due to her very good jumping abilities. She had functional conformation, a quick and powerful take-off and very quick use of her front leg. She jumped up with her withers and it was very easy for her to stretch her body in the second phase of the jump. She had athletic scope and was careful. In the CBF cup she set a new high score of 83 points.

Good Judgement

The 2-year-old Ivana Jump (Lupicor x Donnaludine vb by Whitaker; o/b Equine Holdings LLC) was presented in the CBF cup. This careful mare had a very quick and upward takeoff and showed a quick bending front-leg. She had good bascule and seems to be scopey. She earned a total of 81 points in this competition.

The careful Ismael (Numero Uno pref x Daniella keur IBOP/sp by Ultimo; breeder W. van de Heuvel, owner Equine Holdings LLC) was also presented in the CBF cup. Ismael had a good overview on the jump, could be quicker in the take-off, but was very careful and showed sufficient athletic scope.
