

KWPN-NA Clinic

Flyaway Stables 11666 Sonoma Road, Battle Creek, Michigan 49015

with Ayden Uhlir

October 21-22nd

6x NAJYRC Medalist (including 3 individual Gold Medals) and 2 x National Dressage Champion

2x Willy Arts Grant Recipient 2x USEF grant recipient, D4k Grant recipient, Women's Sports Foundation Grant Recipient

Member of first US Young Rider team to compete in Germany at the Future Champions Nations Cup

Bronze, Silver and Gold medal rider.

First Equestrian athlete ever sponsored by Nike

Flyaway Stables is a premier facility and includes 3 arenas (one full size indoor), 2 barns with 33 stalls, 4 wash racks, 3 tack rooms, 2 feed rooms, laundry room, viewing room and 40 acres of fenced pasture. Flyaway stables has agreed to donate the stabling, arenas and viewing room for the event. Participants must provide their own shavings, hay and feed. For a fee of 50 dollars per horse Flyaway will provide hay and shavings for the two day event if desired. Horses will be asked to be on property by Friday night.

Ayden Uhlir will be giving lessons to all participants who in a traditional clinic format. Auditors are welcome and you do not have to have a horse to participate. There is no cost to the participant or auditors for the event. However, transportation to and from the facility as well as lodging are not included. The Baymont and Fairfield Inn on Beckley are within 2 miles of the facility and have reasonable rates and include breakfast.

Lunch has been generously donated by Ayden's family. Dinner and breakfast will be on your own.